

Your FC ideas from the workshops

We have held four successful workshops; two in Auckland, and one each in Wellington and Dunedin. We have had lots of schools participate and they have come up with some AMAZING ideas. A lot of them might work best with large numbers of people....so we encourage you to collaborate with other amnesty groups! If you need the updated list of schools near you contact; youth.intern@amnesty.org.nz

- Have a slave sale
- Street or school parade / march / theatre
- International food stalls and cake stalls for AI 50th birthday
- Make and sell calendars
- Bed in / blindfold / wrap in glad wrap /gagging / cages
- Surf lifesaving race to free people
- Light candle for Amnesty's different achievements—put a little tag on each candle to explain and put them along a busy path at night
- Giant freeze frame in busy mall (foodcourt)
- Combine with other schools to have a big AI part / ball
- Comedy skit
- Put up quotes of prisoners of conscience who have been released
- Giant water fights / food fights / pillow fights
- Hold a concert
- Defibrillator / CPR to 'keep the heartbeat'
- Aerial peace sign
- Celebrity speaker (Colombia / Zimbabwe)
- Kissing booth
- Large or lots of small helium balloons for AI 50th birthday
- Create an Amnesty tree and put wishes on it
- Quiz—each win you get to light a candle—aim to light 50 candles
- Give out secret positive messages with chocolates (for WOZA)
- Zumba/excersise class to 'keep the heart beat'
- Lifesaver lollies in a jar—pay to guess how many are
- Throw water balloon at teacher—pay to play
- Tag human rights messages across town
- Beach party (for being a lifesaver and the AI birthday)
- Organise a game to free people
- Contemporary dance to represent 'heartbeat'

